

Introductory Certificate in mLearning

Module M124: Designing Mobile Friendly Courses

Module Description

At the end of the module the participant will gain the following competencies:

- Have an understanding of what mLearning
- Have an understanding of how to create mobile friendly content
- Be able to create tasks with different levels for their students
- Be able to participate in online discussion, blog or journal
- Be able to create a mobile friendly test

Duration:

5 hours

Eligibility and Pre-Requisites

- Available to all staff at HCT
- Must have a basic understanding of iOS 7 or another mobile platform

Pre-Course tasks

- Have a fully charged iPad or other mobile device
- Completing the iPads in the Classroom course is highly recommended

Learning Resources

Instructor slides and notes available on the Blackboard website.

Course Outlines

Note: This course is split into 4 parts.

Part 1 - Introduction to mLearning

- Student & Faculty Perspective - interview (x2)
- Four C's of Mobile Capabilities
- Content, Compute, Communicate & Capture
- 7 Tips for Creating Mobile Friendly Courses

Part 2 - Mobile Friendly Practices for Designing Content

- Text documents, presentations & media
- Menus and titles
- General content
- Course management

Part 3 - Mobile Friendly Practices for Mobile Learn Tools

- Features & Tools available
- Collaboration tools: Discussions, Blogs & Journals with DropBox integration
- Other features: Announcements, My Grades, Tasks, Push Notifications

Part 4 - Mobile Friendly Practices for Designing Tests

- Mobile supported question types
- Supported devices & limitations
- Creating mobile tests using BB Mobile Learn

Assessments

Part 1 = Quiz - 25%

Part 2 = Quiz - 25%

Part 3 = Create Three tasks for your students & Participate in discussion, blog or journal- 25%

Part 4 = Create a practice quiz - 25%